

National Council for Cement and Building Materials

15th NCB International Seminar on Cement, Concrete and Building Materials
05-08 December 2017, New Delhi, India

Message to Delegates (Important)

All will appreciate that Delegates coming to attend NCB International Seminar, which includes: Inaugural Session, Special Technical Sessions, Technical Sessions, Exhibition, Cultural Programme, Lunch, Concluding Session and Award Presentation, have to register. NCB International Seminar is a complete package of activities and delegates have to pay fee as per the invoice. However, Honoured Delegates, who have received invitation from DG-NCB, are exempt from registration fee. All other persons, exhibitors, national & overseas teams of exhibitors have to pay necessary fee. Registration is however mandatory for all.

NCB Seminar is a special event. All authors are requested to register in time and attend the Seminar on all the four days. The papers will be included in the Publication (Book/CD) of Seminar Proceedings and the presentation of the paper allowed after due registration (and payment of registration fee) only. Concession in participation fee or permission for complimentary participation is allowed as per the information provided by National and International delegates; details are mentioned in the attached copy of Seminar Bulletin. Copy of the Day-wise programme is also attached.

Necessary permission of overseas participants is required for entering the venue, and overseas delegates should mail their passport, if not mailed already.

Delegates are kindly requested to carry their ID proof for entering the venue which is a High Security Area.

Visit of non-delegates to the Exhibition is allowed with prior permission. NCB reserves the right of admission of non-delegates to the venue.

We look forward to meet you at the seminar. Let us together make this seminar a huge success! Support and cooperation of all stakeholders, the most important being the delegates, is solicited.

Best regards

Dr S K Breja
